Internal and external stakeholders influencing the brand

What is Internal and external stakeholders influencing the brand?

1

Internal Power

Direct brand influence through operations

2

External Impact

Market-driven perception and revenue influence

3

Stakeholder Mapping

Strategic categorisation by interest and influence

4

Message Alignment

Consistent communication across all groups

Stakeholder Management Process

1

Identify

Map all relevant stakeholder groups across the organisation.

2

Map Influence

Assess each group's power and decision-making authority.

3

Assess Interests

Understand their motivations and brand expectations.

Internal vs External Stakeholder Approaches

Internal — Pros

- Direct Involvement — company operations and decisions
- Immediate Buy-in — understanding company goals clearly
- Goal Understanding — clear brand vision alignment

External — Considerations

- Indirect Influence — outside business operations impact
- Customer-Driven — revenue and reputation focus
- Market Perception — public brand image management

Stakeholder Analysis at a Glance

Element	What It Means	Example / Application
Power/Interest Grid	Plot stakeholders by influence and interest level	A CEO = high power, high interest; a junior clerk = low power, low interest
Primary Stakeholders	Directly affected by, or involved in, brand decisions	Employees, customers, direct suppliers
Secondary Stakeholders	Indirectly affected, but can still shape opinion	Media, regulators, industry analysts
Engagement Cadence	How often each group needs updates	Weekly for employees, quarterly for investors

Stakeholder Distribution Analysis

LO1 · LU1 · T1 · WHY IT MATTERS

Ignore a stakeholder, and they will define your brand for you.

The groups you don't actively manage still form opinions — just without your input.

Brand Stakeholder Success Factors

Early Involvement

Increase ownership and commitment levels

Message Consistency

Align internal and external communications

Feedback Loops

Two-way communication and advisory systems

Reputation Gap

Prevent internal-external perception misalignment

Stakeholder Influence Mapping

ACTIVITY 1

Your company is launching a new sustainability initiative. Map internal and external stakeholders, assess their influence levels, and design engagement strategies for each group.

You'll produce

A stakeholder influence matrix (12 stakeholders) with an engagement strategy for each group

Duration: 25 minutes

Stakeholder Influence Mapping

STEP 1 OF 4

List 6 internal and 6 external stakeholders for the sustainability initiative.

Stakeholder Influence Mapping

STEP 2 OF 4

Rate each stakeholder's influence on a 1–5 scale.

Stakeholder Influence Mapping

STEP 3 OF 4

Identify each stakeholder's primary brand concern.

Stakeholder Influence Mapping

STEP 4 OF 4

Design a specific communication approach for each group.

Stakeholder Influence Mapping

Debrief it

Present a completed stakeholder influence matrix with an engagement strategy for every stakeholder — the trainer checks that internal and external groups are both represented and that each strategy matches the stakeholder's stated concern.

LO1 · LU1 · T2

Types of external audience

What is Types of external audience?

Audience Analysis Framework

1

Identify Segments

Map the primary audience groups.

2

Analyse Demographics

Age, gender, education and other hard factors.

3

Study Psychographics

Values, attitudes and beliefs that drive behaviour.

4

Map Preferences

The communication channels each segment actually uses.

B2C vs B2B Audience Approaches

B2C — Consumers

- Emotion Driven — feeling-based purchase decisions
- Broad Reach — mass-market targeting
- Quick Decisions — impulse purchase patterns

B2B — Organisations

- Logic Driven — data-based purchase decisions
- Targeted Approach — niche market focus
- Long Process — extended, multi-stakeholder buying cycles

External Audience Segments at a Glance

Element	What It Means	Example / Application
Customers	People who buy or could buy the product	A first-time app downloader
Partners	Organisations that distribute or co-market the brand	A retail chain stocking the product
Investors	Parties with a financial interest in performance	A shareholder reading the quarterly report
Media	Channels that shape the public narrative	A tech journalist covering the product launch

Audience Distribution Analysis

Source: Trust Insights, 2024

LO1 · LU1 · T2 · WHY IT MATTERS

One message rarely fits every audience.

Segment first — then tailor the message, not the truth.

Key Implementation Takeaways

Segment First

Split the audience before writing a single message.

Research Deep

Go beyond demographics into values and motivations.

Message Match

Tailor the benefit emphasised to each segment.

Monitor Always

Audience needs shift — revisit the segmentation regularly.

Audience Mapping Workshop

ACTIVITY 2

Your company is launching a new sustainability product line. Map external audiences and develop targeted messaging strategies for each segment.

You'll produce

An audience mapping matrix covering 4 external segments with tailored messaging and channels

Duration: 25 minutes

Audience Mapping Workshop

STEP 1 OF 5

Identify four primary external audience segments for the product.

Audience Mapping Workshop

STEP 2 OF 5

Research the demographic and psychographic profile of each segment.

Audience Mapping Workshop

3

Create a tailored key message for each segment, emphasising the relevant benefit.

Audience Mapping Workshop

STEP 4 OF 5

Select the appropriate communication channel(s) for each audience.

Audience Mapping Workshop

STEP 5 OF 5

Present the audience mapping matrix with its messaging strategy.

Audience Mapping Workshop

Debrief it

Present a comprehensive audience-analysis matrix with segment profiles and a customised communication plan per segment.

LO1 · LU1 · T3

Draft branding designs and ideas highlighting the product or service's attributes and benefits

What is Draft branding designs and ideas highlighting the product or service's attributes and benefits?

1

Brand Strategy

Define unique selling proposition

2

Visual Identity

Create a recognisable design system

3

Value Communication

Translate features into benefits

4

Consistency

Maintain a unified brand experience

Systematic Brand Development Process

1

Define Strategy

Establish the brand positioning framework.

2

Research Industry

Analyse competitors and the target audience.

3

Identify Attributes

Define the hard and soft characteristics to lead with.

Hard vs Soft Brand Attributes

Hard Attributes — Features

- Performance — quantifiable product capabilities
- Features — specific functional elements
- Quality — measurable build standards

Soft Attributes — Feelings

- Prestige — perceived status and luxury
- Trust — reliability and confidence
- Innovation — forward-thinking brand perception

Hard vs Soft Attributes — Feature to Benefit

Element	What It Means	Example / Application
Hard Attribute	A measurable product fact	Battery lasts 20 hours
Soft Attribute	The feeling that fact creates	Never worry about charging mid-day
Feature	What the product does	Built-in step tracker
Benefit	Why the customer actually cares	Stay motivated to hit your daily goal

Source: Duck Design, SmashBrand 2024

Visual Brand Impact Statistics

LO1 · LU1 · T3 · WHY IT MATTERS

Customers don't buy features — they buy what the feature lets them feel.

Always translate the spec sheet into a benefit before it reaches the customer.

Visual Identity System Components

Primary Elements

The foundation visual components of the identity

Logo

The primary brand mark

Colour Palette

The brand's colour system

Typography

The font family selection

Brand Attribute Mapping

ACTIVITY 3

Design a brand identity for a new fitness app targeting busy professionals, mapping both hard attributes (features) and soft attributes (lifestyle benefits) into a compelling visual concept.

You'll produce

A brand attribute map (3 hard + 3 soft attributes), a mood board and a logo concept

Duration: 30 minutes

Brand Attribute Mapping

STEP 1 OF 4

List 3 hard attributes and 3 soft attributes for the fitness app.

Brand Attribute Mapping

STEP 2 OF 4

Create a visual mood board that represents the brand personality.

Brand Attribute Mapping

STEP 3 OF 4

Design a logo concept that incorporates the key attributes.

Brand Attribute Mapping

STEP 4 OF 4

Present a brand narrative that connects the features to the benefits.

Brand Attribute Mapping

Debrief it

Present the complete brand attribute map alongside the visual concept, showing a clear line from each hard attribute to the soft benefit it supports.

LO1 · LU1 · T4

Assess organisation's reputation on social media and other platforms

What is Assess organisation's reputation on social media and other platforms?

1

Brand Monitoring

Track mentions across digital platforms

2

Sentiment Analysis

Analyse customer feedback patterns

3

Multi-Platform

Coverage of social and review sites

4

Strategic Response

Data-driven brand improvement actions

Reputation Assessment Process Steps

1

Conduct Audit

Review the organisation's current digital presence.

2

Set Monitoring

Implement tracking systems across the chosen platforms.

3

Analyse Sentiment

Evaluate the tone of customer feedback.

Reactive vs Proactive Reputation Monitoring

Reactive Approach

- Damage Control — crisis-response focus
- Post-Issue — action only after problems occur
- High Risk — potential reputation damage

Proactive Approach

- Prevention Focus — early issue identification
- Continuous Tracking — ongoing brand monitoring
- Risk Mitigation — preventive reputation protection

Reputation Audit at a Glance

Element	What It Means	Example / Application
Mention	Any online reference to the brand	A tweet tagging the company
Sentiment	The emotional tone of a mention	Positive, neutral or negative
Share of Voice	The brand's mentions vs competitors' combined	20% of category conversation
Response Time	How fast the brand replies to feedback	Under 4 hours for negative reviews

Source: Sprout Social, 2024

Platform Distribution Statistics

Source: Sprout Social, 2024

LO1 · LU1 · T4 · WHY IT MATTERS

Reputation is measured in real time, whether you're watching or not.

A monitoring gap is a blind spot competitors can exploit first.

Key Assessment Takeaways

Platform Focus

Prioritise Google and Facebook monitoring first

Quarterly Reviews

Run regular strategy-assessment cycles

Three Perspectives

Weigh employee, customer and corporate viewpoints

Response Protocol

Follow a strategic engagement framework

Digital Reputation Audit Exercise

ACTIVITY 4

Your organisation has received mixed customer feedback across social platforms. Conduct a reputation assessment to identify improvement opportunities and develop an action plan.

You'll produce

A reputation-assessment report covering 3 platforms with sentiment breakdown and an action plan

Duration: 45 minutes

Digital Reputation Audit Exercise

STEP 1 OF 5

Select three platforms (e.g. Google, Facebook, one competitor platform).

Digital Reputation Audit Exercise

STEP 2 OF 5

Document 10 recent mentions/reviews per platform.

Digital Reputation Audit Exercise

STEP 3 OF 5

Categorise each piece of feedback as positive, neutral or negative.

Digital Reputation Audit Exercise

STEP 4 OF 5

Identify three recurring themes or issues across the feedback.

Digital Reputation Audit Exercise

STEP 5 OF 5

Develop a targeted response strategy for each theme.

Digital Reputation Audit Exercise

Debrief it

Present the reputation-assessment report — platform-by-platform analysis, an overall sentiment breakdown, the three key themes, and a strategic recommendation for each.

Recap — Stakeholders and Organisation

- Brand Advocacy Assessment

Activities 7–8

- Campaign Documentation Audit
- Customer Perspective Analysis

LO2 · LU2 · T1

Perceptions of customers of the brand, products and services

What is Perceptions of customers of the brand, products and services?

1

Product View

Customer attitudes toward offerings

2

Brand Identity

Customer understanding of brand values

3

Service Quality

Perceived value of interactions

4

Perception Gap

Difference between reality and belief

Perception Management Process

1

Gather Feedback

Collect systematic customer input, not just anecdotes.

2

Analyse Gaps

Identify where perception differs from reality.

3

Align Values

Match delivery to customer expectations.

4

Deliver Quality

Make the brand experience consistent, every time.

Technical Quality vs Value Quality

Technical Quality

- Specifications — what the product objectively does
- Performance — how reliably it does it
- Reliability — consistency over time

Value Quality

- Brand Image — how the brand is perceived
- Perception — the customer's subjective read
- Experience — how it feels to interact with the brand

Customer Perception Building Blocks

Element	What It Means	Example / Application
Expectation	What the customer believes they'll get	A 24-hour delivery promise
Experience	What actually happens	The parcel arrives in 48 hours
Gap	The distance between the two	A 24-hour shortfall in delivered service
Perception	The lasting belief that gap creates	"This brand overpromises"

The Perception Gap Reality

LO2 · LU2 · T1 · WHY IT MATTERS

A single broken promise can outweigh ten kept ones.

Perception is built on the gap between expectation and experience — close it deliberately.

Key Perception Takeaways

Close the Gap

Act on the difference between belief and reality

Measure Quality

Track both technical and value quality

Monitor Feedback

Make feedback collection continuous, not one-off

Build Loyalty

Closing the gap is what earns long-term loyalty

Brand Perception Audit

ACTIVITY 5

Your company recently received mixed customer reviews. Management believes service quality is excellent, but customer-satisfaction scores are declining. Conduct a perception audit to identify the gaps.

You'll produce

A perception-gap analysis report comparing internal quality metrics with customer feedback

Duration: 25 minutes

Brand Perception Audit

STEP 1 OF 4

Survey 20 recent customers about their service experience.

Brand Perception Audit

STEP 2 OF 4

Compare internal quality metrics with the customer feedback.

Brand Perception Audit

STEP 3 OF 4

Identify the top 3 perception gaps.

Brand Perception Audit

STEP 4 OF 4

Develop an action plan to address the gaps.

Brand Perception Audit

Debrief it

Present the perception-gap analysis report with improvement recommendations for each of the top 3 gaps.

LO2 · LU2 · T2

Importance of the customer in influencing the brand reputation

What is Importance of the customer in influencing the brand reputation?

1

Trust Factor

Personal recommendations drive purchase decisions

2

Viral Spread

Positive experiences multiply through networks

3

Digital Voice

Online reviews equal family recommendations

4

Reputation Control

Customers actively shape the brand image

Customer Advocacy Process

1

Experience

The customer interacts with the brand.

2

Evaluate

The customer forms an emotional connection — or doesn't.

3

Share

The customer tells others about the experience.

Positive vs Negative Word-of-Mouth Impact

Positive Experience

- Recommendation — 36% recommend within two weeks
- Emotional Bond — 3x more word-of-mouth generated
- Trust Building — builds lasting brand loyalty

Negative Experience

- Share Bad — 45% share negative experiences
- Brand Avoidance — 26% completely avoid the brand
- Reputation Damage — long-term perception harm

Word-of-Mouth Mechanics

Element	What It Means	Example / Application
Trigger	The moment a customer decides to talk	An unexpectedly great unboxing experience
Channel	Where they share it	A review site, a group chat, a TikTok
Amplification	How far it travels from there	A friend's friend sees the post
Outcome	The net effect on the brand	New leads, or lost trust

Word-of-Mouth Impact Statistics

Source: Buyapowa, WebFX 2024

LO2 · LU2 · T2 · WHY IT MATTERS

Every customer is a broadcaster now.

Design experiences worth repeating, because they will be repeated.

Key Advocacy Takeaways

Trust Priority

Personal recommendation beats any paid ad

Amplification

Happy customers multiply the brand's reach for free

Digital Equality

Online reviews now carry the weight of word-of-mouth

Strategic Asset

Advocacy is a channel to invest in, not a happy accident

Brand Advocacy Assessment

ACTIVITY 6

Your company recently received mixed reviews online. As brand manager, analyse customer feedback and develop an advocacy strategy to improve brand reputation through existing satisfied customers.

You'll produce

A customer-advocacy strategy document with target impact metrics

Duration: 25 minutes

Brand Advocacy Assessment

STEP 1 OF 4

Review the provided customer feedback data.

Brand Advocacy Assessment

STEP 2 OF 4

Identify satisfied customers for the advocacy programme.

Brand Advocacy Assessment

STEP 3 OF 4

Design an advocacy campaign that leverages their positive experiences.

Brand Advocacy Assessment

STEP 4 OF 4

Present the strategy together with its expected impact metrics.

Brand Advocacy Assessment

Debrief it

Present a comprehensive advocacy strategy document with named target metrics and how they will be tracked.

LO2 · LU2 · T3

Document customer reception to brand and outcome of branding campaigns

What is Document customer reception to brand and outcome of branding campaigns?

Documentation Process Steps

1

Define Metrics

Establish the measurement criteria up front.

2

Collect Feedback

Gather the customer-response data systematically.

3

Analyse Data

Process the collected information into findings.

Traditional vs Modern Documentation Approaches

Traditional

- Manual Surveys — paper-based feedback collection
- Basic Analytics — simple metrics and reporting
- Delayed Insights — weekly or monthly reporting cycles

Modern

- Real-Time Monitoring — instant sentiment tracking
- AI Insights — automated pattern recognition
- Predictive Analytics — trend forecasting capability

Campaign Documentation Fields

Element	What It Means	Example / Application
Metric	What is being tracked	Engagement rate
Source	Where the data comes from	Social platform analytics
Baseline	The value before the campaign	2.1% engagement
Result	The value after the campaign	4.8% engagement

Key Performance Statistics

1

Trust Impact

Builds confidence in the brand's promises

2

Loyalty Rate

Drives repeat engagement with the brand

3

Repeat Spending

Increases customer lifetime value

4

Revenue Growth

Converts documented reception into business results

LO2 · LU2 · T3 · WHY IT MATTERS

What isn't documented gets re-argued next quarter.

A simple, consistent record beats a brilliant memory every time.

Key Documentation Takeaways

Systematic Collection

Use a structured feedback-gathering process

Real-Time Analytics

Monitor responses as they happen, not after

Comprehensive Metrics

Track more than one measurement dimension

Continuous Optimisation

Feed findings back into the next campaign

Campaign Documentation Audit

ACTIVITY 7

Your company launched a new product branding campaign three months ago. Management needs a documentation report on customer reception and campaign outcomes to inform future marketing investment.

You'll produce

A structured campaign-reception report with metrics, analysis and optimisation recommendations

Duration: 25 minutes

Campaign Documentation Audit

STEP 1 OF 4

Identify three key metrics from the campaign data.

Campaign Documentation Audit

STEP 2 OF 4

Analyse customer feedback patterns and sentiment trends.

Campaign Documentation Audit

STEP 3 OF 4

Create a documentation framework for ongoing measurement.

Campaign Documentation Audit

STEP 4 OF 4

Present the findings with actionable recommendations.

Campaign Documentation Audit

Debrief it

Present the structured campaign-reception report, including the documentation framework that will be reused for the next campaign.

LO2 · LU2 · T4

Perform active listening from customer to understand customer's perspective of the organisation

What is Perform active listening from customer to understand customer's perspective of the organisation?

1

Full Attention

Eliminate distractions during customer interactions

2

3 P's Framework

Presence, Patience, and Paraphrasing approach

3

Emotion Focus

Understanding the feelings behind customer words

4

Strategic Insight

Gather valuable customer perception data

Active Listening Implementation Steps

1

Eliminate

Remove all distractions completely before you start.

2

Focus

Give the customer your full attention.

3

Receive

Gather all the information actively — don't half-listen.

4

Interpret

Understand the customer's perspective deeply, not just their words.

Traditional Hearing vs Active Listening

Hearing

- Word Focus — hearing the words only
- Response Ready — focused on preparing a reply
- Surface Level — misses the emotional context

Active Listening

- Emotion Focus — understanding the feelings behind the words
- Perspective — the customer's viewpoint comes first
- Deep Insight — complete situational understanding

The 3 P's Framework

Element	What It Means	Example / Application
Presence	Being fully, mentally there	Put the phone away, make eye contact
Patience	Letting the customer finish, unrushed	Wait a beat before replying
Paraphrasing	Reflecting back what you heard	"So what I'm hearing is..."
Follow-through	Acting on what was actually said	Closing the loop with a concrete fix

Key Statistics on Customer Satisfaction and Active Listening

LO2 · LU2 · T4 · WHY IT MATTERS

Listening isn't waiting for your turn to talk.

The customer's next word usually tells you more than your prepared response would.

Key Takeaways for Active Customer Listening

Framework Use

Apply the 3 P's consistently, not just when it's easy

Emotion Focus

Prioritise feelings over the literal words used

No Prejudgment

Understand the customer without assuming the answer

Strategic Value

Turn each insight into a concrete business action

Customer Perspective Analysis

ACTIVITY 8

You receive a complaint from a long-term customer expressing frustration about recent service changes. They say they feel 'unheard' and 'unimportant' to your organisation.

You'll produce

A completed customer-perspective analysis report with actionable insights

Duration: 25 minutes

Customer Perspective Analysis

STEP 1 OF 4

Apply the 3 P's framework — Presence, Patience, Paraphrasing — during the conversation.

Customer Perspective Analysis

STEP 2 OF 4

Identify the emotions behind the customer's specific words.

Customer Perspective Analysis

3

Paraphrase the customer's perspective back to them without judgement.

Customer Perspective Analysis

STEP 4 OF 4

Document the insights for strategic decision-making.

Customer Perspective Analysis

Debrief it

Present the completed customer-perspective analysis report — the trainer checks that the emotion behind the words (not just the words) is captured, and that the insight is actionable.

Recap — Customer Influence

1

Brand Perception Audit

You can now: Assess customer perceptions of the brand, products and services.

2

Brand Advocacy Assessment

You can now: Recognise the importance of the customer in influencing brand reputation.

3

Consistent vs Inconsistent Branding

Consistent Brand

- Revenue Boost — 33% higher financial performance
- Recognition — 80% increase with colour consistency
- Trust Building — stronger consumer confidence

Inconsistent Brand

- Lower Trust — reduced consumer confidence
- Weak Recognition — confused brand identity
- Market Confusion — unclear value proposition

Brand Identity Building Blocks

Element	What It Means	Example / Application
Logo	The visual mark	A wordmark or symbol
Colour Palette	The consistent colour system	A primary + 2 accent colours
Typography	The font system	One display + one body font
Brand Voice	How the brand "talks"	Friendly, expert, playful, etc.

Brand Impact Statistics

LO3 · LU3 · T1 · WHY IT MATTERS

A brand isn't a logo — a logo is just the doorway.

Everything behind that doorway has to feel consistent, or the logo is lying.

Key Branding Takeaways

Consistency

A unified presentation across every touchpoint

Authenticity

Genuine brand values and messaging

Recognition

A memorable visual and verbal identity

Trust Building

A reliably delivered brand experience

Brand Audit Workshop

ACTIVITY 9

Traditional Marketing vs Brand Marketing

Traditional Marketing

- Product Focus — sells features
- Short-term — campaign by campaign
- Transactional — one purchase at a time

Brand Marketing

- Identity Focus — sells what the brand stands for
- Long-term — builds equity over years
- Emotional — builds a relationship with the customer

Branding vs a Single Campaign

Element	What It Means	Example / Application
Campaign	A time-boxed push with a specific goal	A 4-week product-launch push
Brand	The lasting identity behind every campaign	What the company stands for, always
Short-term Win	An immediate sales lift	A spike in conversions during the sale
Long-term Asset	Equity that compounds over years	Customers who choose you without comparing

Consumer Trust and Loyalty Impact

LO3 · LU3 · T2 · WHY IT MATTERS

You are a marketing manager evaluating how well your company's current marketing campaigns align with brand identity. Select a real company and analyse one of their recent marketing campaigns.

You'll produce

A brand-audit report with a consistency assessment and recommendations

Duration: 20 minutes

Brand-Marketing Audit Exercise

STEP 1 OF 4

Choose a brand and identify its core identity elements.

Brand-Marketing Audit Exercise

STEP 2 OF 4

Analyse one recent marketing campaign for brand consistency.

Brand-Marketing Audit Exercise

STEP 3 OF 4

Evaluate the alignment between the brand messaging and the campaign goals.

Brand-Marketing Audit Exercise

4

Identify gaps and propose improvements for better integration.

Brand-Marketing Audit Exercise

Debrief it

Present the brand-audit report with a consistency assessment score and concrete recommendations.

Execute branding campaigns, events and activities to increase brand awareness

What is Execute branding campaigns, events and activities to increase brand awareness?

1

Campaign Planning

Multi-channel strategy development process

2

Event Activation

Experiential marketing through interactive experiences

3

Channel Coordination

Consistent messaging across all platforms

4

Performance Measurement

Brand recall and recognition tracking

Campaign Execution Process

1

Define Audience

Identify the target demographics precisely.

2

Core Message

Develop the unique selling proposition.

3

Channel Selection

Choose the optimal marketing platforms.

4

Visual Consistency

Create unified brand assets across channels.

Traditional vs Experiential Marketing

Traditional

- Print Media — newspaper and magazine placement
- Radio Spots — audio commercial broadcasts
- TV Commercials — television advertisement slots

Experiential

- Pop-up Stores — temporary retail experiences
- Brand Events — live, interactive activations
- Sponsorships — strategic event partnerships

Campaign Channel Toolkit

Element	What It Means	Example / Application
Owned Channel	Platforms the brand controls	Website, email list, app
Earned Channel	Coverage the brand doesn't pay for	Press mentions, organic reviews
Paid Channel	Placements the brand pays for	Social ads, sponsorships
Experiential	In-person or interactive activation	A pop-up store, a live event

Campaign Performance Statistics

LO3 · LU3 · T3 · WHY IT MATTERS

Awareness built on one channel alone is awareness at risk.

A campaign that only lives in one place dies the moment that channel changes.

Key Campaign Success Factors

Message Alignment

Connect to the audience's values, not just demographics

Visual Consistency

One unified identity across every channel

Interactive Experiences

Give the audience something memorable to do

Measurement Framework

Track brand recall and recognition, not just reach

Brand Activation Planning Workshop

ACTIVITY 11

Your organisation wants to launch a new product line and needs to increase brand awareness by 40% within 6 months. Design a multi-channel campaign that includes both digital and experiential elements.

You'll produce

A campaign-strategy document with timeline, budget allocation and success metrics

Duration: 30 minutes

Brand Activation Planning Workshop

STEP 1 OF 5

Define the target audience's demographics and psychographics.

Brand Activation Planning Workshop

STEP 2 OF 5

Develop a core brand message aligned with the audience's values.

Brand Activation Planning Workshop

STEP 3 OF 5

Select 3–4 marketing channels and design consistent visuals across them.

Brand Activation Planning Workshop

4

Plan one experiential event and its supporting digital content.

Brand Activation Planning Workshop

STEP 5 OF 5

Create a measurement framework using brand-recall metrics.

Brand Activation Planning Workshop

Debrief it

Present the complete campaign-strategy document with timeline, budget allocation and success metrics — the trainer checks the digital and experiential elements are both present and consistent.

LO3 · LU3 · T4

Execute public relations campaigns in alignment to brand positioning strategies, operational plans and budget

What is Execute public relations campaigns in alignment to brand positioning strategies, operational plans and budget?

PR Campaign Planning Process

1

Define Positioning

Establish the unique brand identity behind the campaign.

2

Set Objectives

Write clear, measurable campaign goals.

3

Identify Audiences

Define each target group precisely.

4

Craft Messages

Tailor the content to each audience.

Traditional vs Modern PR Approaches

Traditional PR

- One-Way — broadcast messaging only
- Limited Metrics — basic measurement capabilities
- Static Content — fixed campaign materials

Modern PR

- Two-Way — interactive audience engagement
- Real-Time Analytics — continuous performance monitoring
- Dynamic Content — adaptable campaign elements

PR Budget Allocation Model

Element	What It Means	Example / Application
Earned Media	Coverage secured through relationships, unpaid	A feature article from a pitched story
Owned Media	Content published on brand-controlled channels	A company blog post
Paid Media	Sponsored placements and promotion	A boosted social post
Reserve Fund	Budget held back for crisis response	5-10% held for unplanned needs

Source: PRLab 2026, Cision 2024

Key Success Factors

1

Budget Discipline

Ten to twenty percent marketing allocation

2

Real-Time Monitoring

Continuous performance tracking and adjustment

3

Strategic Alignment

Consistent brand positioning integration

4

Measurable Results

Clear success metrics and evaluation

LO3 · LU3 · T4 · WHY IT MATTERS

A PR budget with no reserve is a plan with no plan B.

Hold something back — the crisis you don't budget for is the one that costs the most.

Core Content Framework

Brand Foundation

The core positioning elements everything else builds on

Content Pillars

Three to five key themes the PR content returns to

Key Messages

Audience-specific versions of the core message

Brand Voice

A consistent tone and style across every release

PR Campaign Budget Planning

ACTIVITY 12

You're the marketing manager for a growth-stage tech company launching a new product. Create a PR campaign budget aligned with the brand positioning strategy.

You'll produce

A PR budget proposal with channel allocation and success metrics

Duration: 25 minutes

PR Campaign Budget Planning

STEP 1 OF 4

Define three core content pillars for the brand.

PR Campaign Budget Planning

STEP 2 OF 4

Allocate 15% of the marketing budget to PR activities.

PR Campaign Budget Planning

STEP 3 OF 4

Distribute the PR budget across earned, owned and paid channels.

PR Campaign Budget Planning

STEP 4 OF 4

Identify the key performance indicators for measurement.

PR Campaign Budget Planning

Debrief it

Measures or indicators of organisation's reputation on different platforms

What is Measures or indicators of organisation's reputation on different platforms?

Reputation Monitoring Process

1

Set Objectives

Define clear measurement goals up front.

2

Monitor Sources

Track multiple data channels, not just one.

3

Analyse Sentiment

Measure the positive/negative tone of the feedback.

4

Track Engagement

Monitor how the audience actually interacts.

Traditional vs Modern Reputation Monitoring

Traditional

- Single Channel — limited platform coverage
- Reactive — response only after issues occur
- Basic Metrics — simple measurement tools

Modern

- Multi-Platform — comprehensive cross-channel tracking
- Predictive — forecasts stakeholder behaviour patterns
- AI Analytics — real-time sentiment analysis

Reputation Indicator Types

Element	What It Means	Example / Application
Leading Indicator	Predicts a future reputation change	Rising negative sentiment this week
Lagging Indicator	Confirms a change that already happened	Last quarter's NPS score
Qualitative Signal	Descriptive, not numeric	Comments describing "poor service"
Quantitative Signal	Numeric and trackable	A 12% drop in 5-star reviews

Source: Meltwater, 2024

Core Indicator Categories

Source: Meltwater, 2024

LO4 · LU4 · T1 · WHY IT MATTERS

If you only track lagging indicators, you'll always be reacting late.

Leading indicators are what let a brand get ahead of a problem.

Key Reputation Success Factors

Trust Scores

A single number to track sentiment over time

Share of Voice

How much of the conversation the brand actually owns

NPS Tracking

Loyalty measured directly from customers

Forecast & Review

Use the data to anticipate reputation risk

Platform Reputation Audit

ACTIVITY 13

Your organisation needs to establish reputation monitoring for a new product launch across social media, review sites, and business platforms.

You'll produce

A reputation-monitoring framework with defined metrics and tracking systems

Duration: 20 minutes

Platform Reputation Audit

STEP 1 OF 4

Map the stakeholder groups and select 3 key platforms per group.

Platform Reputation Audit

STEP 2 OF 4

Define specific KPIs for the social, digital and business indicators.

Platform Reputation Audit

STEP 3 OF 4

Set up monitoring tools and establish baseline measurements.

Platform Reputation Audit

STEP 4 OF 4

Indicators of successful branding

What is Indicators of successful branding?

1

Brand Awareness

Recognition and recall measurement

2

Customer Loyalty

Retention and repeat purchase rates

3

Financial Impact

Revenue growth and market share

4

Trust Metrics

Consumer confidence and perception

Brand Measurement Framework

1

Define Metrics

Decide what you're going to track, and why.

2

Track Awareness

Measure recognition and recall over time.

3

Measure Loyalty

Track retention and repeat-purchase rates.

4

Assess Perception

Check whether the brand is seen the way it intends.

Traditional vs Digital Brand Measurement

Traditional

- Surveys — customer feedback collection
- Focus Groups — qualitative brand perception
- Quarterly — periodic assessment cycles

Digital

- Analytics — real-time performance tracking
- Social Media — engagement and sentiment monitoring
- Continuous — always-on measurement

Brand Success Indicator Set

Element	What It Means	Example / Application
Awareness	Do people recognise the brand	Unprompted recall in a survey
Consideration	Would they consider buying it	Appears on a shortlist of 3
Preference	Would they choose it over rivals	Picked in a head-to-head test
Advocacy	Would they recommend it	Refers a friend unprompted

Public relations tactics

What is Public relations tactics?

1

Media Relations

Build journalist partnerships for visibility

2

Community Outreach

Engage local audiences and stakeholders

3

Crisis Management

Protect reputation during challenges

4

Digital Engagement

Social media and online interactions

PR Implementation Process

1

Target Audience

Identify the stakeholder groups affected.

2

Core Messaging

Develop one consistent line of communication.

3

Media Relationships

Build the journalist connections you'll need.

4

Campaign Execution

Deploy the tactical activities on schedule.

Traditional vs Modern PR Tactics

Traditional PR

- Press Releases — one-directional announcements
- Print Media — newspapers and magazines
- One-Way Flow — broadcast, no dialogue

Modern PR

- Social Media — real-time public conversation
- Influencer Partners — trusted third-party voices
- Two-Way Dialogue — respond as well as broadcast

PR Tactic Toolkit

Element	What It Means	Example / Application
Press Release	A formal written announcement	Product-launch announcement
Media Pitch	A tailored story angle sent to one journalist	An exclusive interview offer
Media Event	An in-person or virtual press gathering	A product-launch press conference
Community Programme	Ongoing local or niche engagement	Sponsoring a local event series

Journalist Preferences Data

LO4 · LU4 · T3 · WHY IT MATTERS

Not every story deserves a press release.

Match the tactic to the audience, or the message won't land.

The Seven PR Categories (Key Four)

External Relations

Public-facing communications overall

Media Relations

Journalist partnerships and pitching

Community Relations

Local stakeholder engagement

Customer Relations

Direct client and customer communication

PR Crisis Response Plan

ACTIVITY 15

Your company faces negative social-media coverage about product-quality issues. Design a comprehensive PR response strategy using the tactics learned.

You'll produce

A crisis-communication plan with timelines and responsible parties

Duration: 25 minutes

PR Crisis Response Plan

STEP 1 OF 5

Identify the affected stakeholder groups and media outlets.

PR Crisis Response Plan

STEP 2 OF 5

Develop core messaging that addresses the concerns transparently.

PR Crisis Response Plan

STEP 3 OF 5

Create a media-outreach plan with personalised pitches.

PR Crisis Response Plan

STEP 4 OF 5

Design the social-media response and community-engagement plan.

PR Crisis Response Plan

STEP 5 OF 5

Establish measurement metrics for reputation recovery.

PR Crisis Response Plan

Debrief it

Present the complete crisis-communication plan with a timeline and the party responsible for each action.

LO4 · LU4 · T4

Monitor the success of the brand against Key Performance Indicators (KPI)

What is Monitor the success of the brand against Key Performance Indicators (KPI)?

1

SMART KPIs

Specific, measurable, attainable, realistic, time-bound

2

Data Collection

Analytics tools and brand guidelines

3

Performance Analysis

Interpret trends and changes

4

Strategic Optimisation

Insights drive brand improvements

KPI Monitoring Process

1

Collect Data

Gather the analytics and brand guidelines.

2

Interpret

Analyse the trends and what's changing.

3

Optimise

Apply the insights to real improvements.

4

Repeat Monthly

Keep the cycle continuous, not a one-off review.

Brand KPI Categories — Internal vs External Focus

Internal Focus

- Team Adoption — brand-guideline compliance
- Consistency — cross-channel brand alignment
- Engagement — internal brand activation

External Focus

- Market Perception — customer brand sentiment
- Competitive Position — market-share comparison
- Awareness — brand recognition metrics

SMART KPI Worksheet

Element	What It Means	Example / Application
Specific	Exactly what is being measured	Instagram engagement rate
Measurable	How it's quantified	% of followers who engage per post
Attainable	A realistic target	+2% over the current baseline
Time-bound	The review deadline	Reviewed monthly

Source: Frontify, 2024

KPI Distribution

LO4 · LU4 · T4 · WHY IT MATTERS

A KPI without a deadline is just an opinion with a number attached.

SMART turns a vague goal into something the team can actually be held to.

KPI Monitoring Key Takeaways

Balanced Mix

Track internal and external metrics together

Monthly Tracking

Review on a regular, not ad hoc, cadence

Strategic Alignment

Every KPI should ladder up to a real objective

Continuous Cycle

Collect, interpret, optimise, repeat

KPI Dashboard Design

ACTIVITY 16

Create a brand KPI monitoring framework for a retail company launching new product lines.

You'll produce

A complete KPI framework with a tracking schedule

Duration: 20 minutes

KPI Dashboard Design

STEP 1 OF 3

Select 3 internal and 3 external KPIs.

KPI Dashboard Design

STEP 2 OF 3

Define the measure, target, data source and frequency for each KPI.

KPI Dashboard Design

STEP 3 OF 3

Design a monthly tracking dashboard.

KPI Dashboard Design

Debrief it

Present the complete KPI framework with its tracking schedule — 3 internal + 3 external KPIs, each with a measure, target, source and frequency.

LO4 · LU4 · T5

Provide suggestions to improve public relations campaign effectiveness

What is Provide suggestions to improve public relations campaign effectiveness?

1

Performance Gaps

Identify weaknesses through data analysis

2

Strategic Planning

Develop measurable objectives and tactics

3

Media Relations

Build strong journalist partnerships

4

Content Quality

Create compelling research-backed stories

Campaign Optimisation Process

1

Set Goals

Define clear, measurable objectives.

2

Define Audience

Target specific stakeholder segments.

3

Create Content

Develop compelling, research-backed stories.

Output Metrics vs Outcome Metrics

Output Metrics

- Reach — total audience exposure
- Impressions — content visibility metrics
- Volume — quantity of coverage

Outcome Metrics

- Business Impact — revenue and growth correlation
- Behaviour Change — audience action and engagement
- Quality Metrics — message penetration and sentiment

AMEC Framework at a Glance

Element	What It Means	Example / Application
Inputs	What went into the campaign	Budget, planning, content produced
Outputs	What was distributed	Number of press releases sent
Outtakes	What the audience took away	Message recall, sentiment shift
Outcomes	The business impact	Sales lift, share-price movement

Key Performance Indicators

Message Success

Sentiment Improvement

Tier 1 Coverage

LO4 · LU4 · T5 · WHY IT MATTERS

Impressions are not impact.

The AMEC framework forces the question every campaign should answer: so what?

Implementation Takeaways

Data Analytics

Use metrics to guide the next decision, not just report

AMEC Framework

Apply an industry-standard measurement approach

Media Quality

Prioritise tier-one relationships over raw volume

Regression Analysis

Look for the activity-outcome correlations that matter

PR Campaign Audit Exercise

ACTIVITY 17

Your organisation's recent product-launch campaign achieved 500K impressions but only 15% top-tier coverage and 45% message penetration. Stakeholders are questioning the campaign's business impact.

You'll produce

An improvement proposal with metrics, built using the AMEC measurement framework

Duration: 25 minutes

PR Campaign Audit Exercise

STEP 1 OF 3

Apply the AMEC framework to identify the performance gaps.

PR Campaign Audit Exercise

STEP 2 OF 3

Develop three strategic recommendations using best practice.

PR Campaign Audit Exercise

STEP 3 OF 3

Create a measurement plan with specific KPIs.

PR Campaign Audit Exercise

Debrief it

Present the comprehensive improvement proposal — the three recommendations must each map to a specific gap surfaced by the AMEC analysis.
